

Ascentis Talent Management

A-la-carte full suite human capital management technology

Streamline the professional development of your employees by integrating performance and learning management with Ascentis Talent Management.

Learning Management

Develop a culture of learning with resources that are web-based, instructor-led, on the job and online. Managers can recommend training opportunities and employees can proactively engage in self-directed training. Use award-winning programs from ej4 to draft content specific to your employees.

Performance Management

Fine tune employee performance on-demand with real-time performance management software. Increase your organization's agility and responsiveness with an intuitive mobile interface.

Compensation Planning

Achieve a true pay-for performance culture by using Ascentis Compensation Planning and Performance Management together. Use performance outcomes as key inputs for salary adjustments and bonuses.

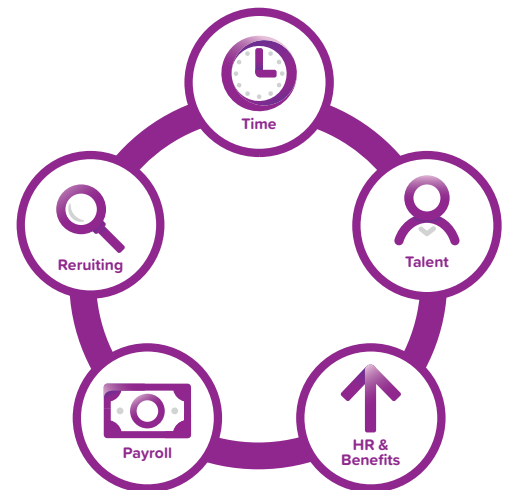

Succession Planning

Engage employees in their career development and have full visibility into growth opportunities with Ascentis Talent Management. Easily overcome common challenges of employee engagement, turnover and global workforce management

360 Degree Assessment

Evaluate working relationships by gathering feedback from all directions. Optimize effectiveness and deliver feedback with speed and accuracy.

A-la-carte Full Suite Software

Start Anywhere. Add Anytime. Ascentis' industry-leading a-la-carte full suite human capital management (HCM) technology platform and workforce management solutions are supported by an ongoing commitment to delivering an unsurpassed client experience. Ascentis' technology modules work independently or together to meet the needs of each client, wherever they are in the HCM journey.